F943 went to the development center scurred but to our surprise his scurs attached. We don't normally keep horned bulls but he's a good one and would do really well on a herd of polled Brangus or Red Angus cows. He's out of the C99 Simmental bull and his dam is an old cow and her calves all have in herd ratios above average for growth traits as well as marbling. He definitely contributed to her high averages with his growth and marbling numbers. Good bull.
